Better Health, Better Care, Every Day.

Health New Zealand | Te Whatu Ora is committed to providing high-quality healthcare for all New Zealanders. We are focused on improving access to care, delivering better health outcomes, achieving national health targets, and ensuring the long-term sustainability of our health system.

We know that great healthcare starts with great people. That's why we are committed to building a high-performing, inclusive workplace where our people are supported to grow, contribute, and make a real difference for patients, whānau, and communities across Aotearoa.

About the role

The primary purpose of the role is to:

[Contribute to the successful operation of the mental health multidisciplinary team by collaborating and working alongside the team, Registered Nurse (RN)/Enrolled Nurse (EN) to meet tāngata whaiora needs. They will assist with tāngata whaiora care as directed. The MHSW may also be required to undertake a specific area of responsibility, as assigned by their manager.

As an unregulated healthcare worker, the MHSW works under the direction & delegation of a RN. They will be delegated tasks by the RN/EN that do not require specialised nursing knowledge, judgement or skill. The MHSW will remain responsible for their actions, while the RN/EN is accountable for the delegation decision, assessment and evaluation of outcomes. The MHSW will receive training to complete specific tasks within defined boundaries according to the service areas requirements.

The MHSW working for the MHAID Services will have a desire to work within a team nursing approach and demonstrating values consistent with those of MHAID Services and will be committed to the five enhanced principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.

The Team Nursing approach commits to provide tangata whaiora/whānau centred care, using current evidence to assist people to achieve their optimum health. It considers the nursing skill (PDRP) level and staff mix with Registered Nurses (RN), Enrolled Nurses (EN) and Mental Health Support Workers (MHSW) working together as part of the team. The benefits of a Team Nursing approach are:

- Improved communication and coordination of care
- Enhanced teaching of clinical decision-making and skills
- Increased patient satisfaction
- Improved patient care
- Increased work satisfaction and staff retention
- Decreased staff turnover

Supporting change implementation is an important aspect of this role. The environment is one of continuing change as we strive for quality practice and improved patient safety. The MHSW is a key part of the team's involvement in such change.

Tane Mahuta is a 24hr service. The MHSW working hours will be rostered and rotating and may work across the service as required due to patient safety and workforce necessities.

The MHSW is expected to contribute to the implementation of District and nursing goals and values and to promote Te Whatu Ora – Health New Zealand Capital, Coast and Hutt Valley as a centre of excellence for mental health practice.

MHSW are legally accountable for their actions and accountable to their employer. They must have the appropriate skills and knowledge to undertake activities, and be working within policy and direction and delegation of a RN/EN.

They must be careful not to lead health consumers to believe they are a nurse when undertaking aspects of nursing care (Nursing Council of New Zealand 2011).

Te Korowai Whāriki (TKW) is an operational group of regional and national services that has staff based in various locations in the Central Region, from Gisborne to Wanganui through to Wellington. Te Korowai Whāriki services are both inpatient and community based. Te Korowai Whāriki consists primarily of two arms - Central Regional Services and the Intellectual Disability (ID) Services

The Regional Rehabilitation and Extended Care Service is a 24-hour inpatient service at Ratonga Rua Hospital. The region covered includes Mid Central, Hutt Valley, Nelson/Marlborough, Tairāwhiti, Hawkes Bay, Wanganui and the greater Wellington area. There are two inpatient units and cottages on the grounds of Ratonga Rua o Porirua. The service provides both longer-term care (Tawhirimatea Unit) and intensive rehabilitation (Tane Mahuta) within both secure and open settings. The service has 64 inpatient beds in total, some of which are in purpose built cottages ranging from 1 to 4 bedrooms. There are also 16 step-down beds for the Central Regional Forensic Mental Health Service.

The service's focus is on recovery and rehabilitation through providing people with the opportunity to learn new skills, as well as gain independence and empowerment for community living. The service links into other elements within the hospital such as the programmes run from Tangaroa and Rūaumoko, work programmes, and linking with community based resources and organisations. Both units provide clients with individualised recovery programme in both a safe care and open setting.
